

Week 15

7/2022

Write a perfect pet story.

A perfect pet for me would be a robot replica of myself. It scares my enemies away. My robot mimics me a lot too. My robot helps me clean up so I don't have to clean up under my bed because I stuff things under my bed. It listens to what I want it to do. It sleeps in my cabinets at night and it does not like to scare me at all. When my enemies come, it sticks out its robot tentacle and then my enemies get scared and run away. It's the perfect pet because it helps me trick Mommy.
